Whatever the reason, the North West of Ireland is a truly magical destination for a golf or leisure getaway.

Golf in Ireland

The Home of Champions

For a tiny island on the edge of Europe, Ireland sure knows a thing or two about golf. Everyone from champions Rory McIlroy, Phil Mickelson, and Tiger Woods to actors Will Ferrell, Paul Rudd, and Bill Murray all love playing golf on the island of Ireland, and it's hard not to see why. With world-class courses in some of the most spectacular locations on the planet, Ireland's credentials are sky-high when it comes to golf. This is all possible on a Deluxe Irish Golf Tour.

There are golf courses in Ireland where the sublime coastal views will physically distract you from your shot. There are hidden gems everywhere, wrapped in mythology and legend. And there are courses that challenge the best, with built-in blind shots that require a healthy portion of Irish luck, sheer brilliance, or the assistance of a good caddie to get your ball where it needs to be.

Unparalleled Golfing Experience

Perhaps the biggest appeal of golf in Ireland is the abundance of world-class links and parkland courses in such close proximity. No other destination in the world offers the golfer the opportunity to play multiple top-class golf courses so close to each other and within very little travel time.

Ireland is home to over 400 golf clubs, including a third of the world's natural links courses, and a selection of exceptional championship courses in amazing locations. It's no wonder that every year over 240,000 golfers from all over the world come to the island of Ireland's greens to experience the impressive but unforgiving fairways.

Recognized Excellence

In the last 20 years or so, Ireland has been named International Golf Destination of the Year on multiple occasions by the International Association of Golf Tour Operators. It continues to cement its reputation as an iconic golfing destination by hosting prestigious events, including The 153rd Open in Royal Portrush (2025) and the Ryder Cup in Adare Manor (2027).

After all, some of the world's best golfers, including Rory McIlroy, Shane Lowry, Darren Clarke, Graeme McDowell, Paul McGinley, Padraig Harrington, and Leona Maguire, hail from the island of Ireland.

Optimal Golfing Seasons

Most of Ireland's courses, especially links, are open all year round. However, the courses are in the best condition, and the weather is most suitable for golfing from April to October. In summer, daylight hours can stretch up to 10 pm, so two rounds and a lazy lunch can easily fit into a day.

Beyond the Fairways

The truly great thing about golfing in Ireland is that there's far more to a golf trip than just the challenge of the fairway! In Ireland, exceptional golfing is blended with wonderful off-the-course experiences. From exploring the Wild Atlantic Way to visiting the Causeway Coast, historic castles, magnificent scenic sites and enjoying a "pint of Guinness" in a local pub, Ireland offers a comprehensive travel experience.

We facilitate engagement with passionate practitioners keen on sharing their expertise across Ireland's traditional industries. In addition to these exceptional encounters, our journeys take customers across Northern Ireland and Ireland to discover both iconic destinations and lesser-known gems.

Throughout your trips, you'll delve into the captivating history, vibrant culture, and awe-inspiring natural beauty of the North West of Ireland. Travel in unparalleled comfort and elegance aboard our luxurious Mercedes Benz Vehicles. Their spacious interiors and raised seating offer unrivalled panoramic views of Ireland's stunning countryside as we journey through remarkable landscapes and reveal off-the-beaten-path treasures.

Every trip is meticulously tailored to suit each client's needs and preferences while showcasing the beauty of the Irish seasons and natural environment. Deluxe Irish Golf is dedicated to providing impeccable service, rooted in honesty, integrity, and genuine warmth. We pledge to serve our customers wholeheartedly, ensuring their needs are met throughout their journey and offering an Irish experience that will be truly unforgettable and long-lasting. By providing exceptional itineraries, Tee Times, Accommodation, knowledgeable guides, and comfortable vehicles, we guarantee that a tour with us is far more than just an Instagram-worthy excursion – it's the experience of a lifetime.

Once Visited, a Return is Always on the Cards

Ireland's allure as a premier golf destination extends beyond its spectacular courses to the people who grace its greens. Proficient amateurs from the movie world have long made Ireland a favourite golfing destination. Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, and Charlie Chaplin were regular visitors in the 1950s and 1960s, and the stream of stars has not stopped since then. Actor Bill Murray, beloved by golf fans everywhere for his portrayal of the quirky greenskeeper Carl Spackler in the cult classic Caddyshack, is a huge fan of Ireland and Irish golf. "My favourite place to play golf is in Ireland," says the Emmy and Golden Globe winner. His sentiments are shared by many who have experienced the magic of golfing in Ireland.

The 19th Hole: The Perfect Ending

The 19th hole is the inevitable ending point to a day's golfing on the island of Ireland. And where better than the confines of a great pub to relax after a magical 18 holes at one of our world-class courses? Whether you've performed well or not, the pub is where plans are made and myths are born. Pull up a chair, enjoy a drink, and regale the locals with tales of that perfect round.

Famous Footsteps and Warm Welcomes

Whatever brings you to golf in Ireland and Northern Ireland, you'll be following in some famous footsteps. You might not have any Irish roots, but you'll still be welcomed home like one of the family. Here, on the island of Ireland, we always carry on to the 19th hole.

The combination of iconic golf courses, stunning landscapes, and the legendary Irish hospitality ensures that once you visit, a return is always on the cards. Experience the enchantment of golfing in Ireland with Deluxe Irish Golf and create your own unforgettable stories.

Happy Golfers!

THE TESTIMONIALS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

Garrett Chapman

Shea is an absolute professional and a great person to work with. He was super quick to respond to any questions I had in planning our golf trip, which were plenty. As an American, I would have been overwhelmed to have to drive through cities like Dublin myself, but Shea is super knowledgeable and punctual every time. He was also able to give us some great sightseeing and restaurant recommendations outside of our golf tee times. His van was very comfortable and big enough for our group of 8 with all of our clubs and luggage. I cannot recommend Shea and Deluxe Tours & Transfers enough for golf transportation and any other tours through Ireland. We will certainly be using him again for our next trip!

David Campbell

Recently spent a few days in Ireland playing golf with a group of friends. Would happily recommend Deluxe Tours and Transfers. Shea was very helpful, professional and flexible....

Gillian Brown

Shea was the most amazing Driver that went far and beyond just driving the 8 of us from place to place - airport to hotel, hotel to golf courses and back etc. He drove us to see sites around Londonderry/Derry and told us the best places to eat, drink and be merry..... he was right as all his tips turned out to be great. Loved his company and his knowledge of Northern Ireland. Would gladly recommend him and would definitely want him to help us out again if we ever get back there. Thanks Shea.

Stephen Kiernan

Shea was exceptional and made our Golf trip smooth as butter (Shea butter)... Not only was he extremely helpful, on-time and courteous, he went out of his way to help outside of the terms of the contract. I will call Shea next time I'm in Ireland... you may pay slightly more but you will be able to relax and enjoy your vacation!

Patricia Carswell

My husband and I have been in Ireland on a golfing vacation for the past 2 weeks and Shea, the owner and operator of Deluxe Tours and Transfers, has provided transportation for 11 days. Our trip took us from Bushmills to Sligo to Dublin. He not only ensured we got to the golf courses, but was also available to take us sight seeing. He suggested places to visit that we hadn't considered so we saw sights that we would have otherwise missed. He also suggested restaurants and local attractions, and was able to provide interesting historical information. Shea was an excellent driver and we would highly recommend him as a driver and for touring.

Michael Dixon

Recently arranged transport for friends of mine from Derry Airport to Ballyliffin golf club and back. From start to finish Shea was absolutely top class. I could feel from first talking with Shea he was a professional at what he does. Everything flowed from start to finish with ease. His price was very fair, everything on time, relaxed and friendly. Sincerely could not recommend Shea highly enough. Will definitely use again. First class service. Michael

Scott Reichard

We used Deluxe Tours and Transfers recently and what a difference it made. I've been on a few trips to Ireland but have never had a driver. It made every destination so relaxing and allowed us to see the beautiful landscapes, was extremely convenient and worry free. Shea was the best making site recommendations along the way and stopping anywhere/anytime we needed. Can't wait till the next time!

George Connor

Outstanding service throughout our golf trip. I can't imagine a better host of Ireland. So dependable, dedicated and professional. Thanks Shea.

Andy Jackson

Excellent service from start to finish for our group of 8 golfers. Shea was so easy to deal with and great communication from day 1. He always arrived early for our pickups, and nothing was too much trouble for him. Highly recommend and we would definitely use again.
